Information Sought (जानकारी मांगी):	Respected Concerning Authority, During the interviews for the Masters in Design program, it has been observed that there was a segregation of students in the order of interview itself according to their categories. for eg. all the candidates belonging to ST category were called first then all the SC candidates then OBC and then the General candidates. Is it the case where the authorities select reserved category students only for the reserved seats and not for the open seats. If not, may I please ask for the details of admitted students and their respective categories in which the seats have been allotted to them for the last two years of M.Des program. This will clarify the fact that Reserved candidates are not competing for only reserved seats, they are eligible for open seats as well.
