PROFILE

I am an avid academician with expertise in GeoHumanities linked to Gendered Politics, Inequalities, Poverty, Violence, Sustainable Goals, and Development in South Asia. I have over two decades of teaching and research experience spending the first seven years (1996-2003) of my career in only classroom teaching. After accomplishing my PhD from the School of Geography, Politics, and Sociology, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Newcastle University, UK, in 2009, my academic practice has integrated research and teaching (classroom and online teaching) across different universities of South Asia. Currently, I am an Adjunct Professor at the Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati and engaged in contract and invited teachings across various universities of South Asia and continue to work with publishers—Springer Nature, Palgrave Macmillan, Sage, Routledge, Taylor and Francis, Elsevier, and Wiley.

- I am a Senior Fellow, Advance HE {Fellowship reference (PR204397)} (formerly Higher Education Academy), United Kingdom
- In 2018, I accomplished Associate Fellow, Advance HE {Fellowship reference (PR136774)}, (formerly Higher Education Academy), United Kingdom
- I have worked on transnational, interdisciplinary projects spanning the disciplinary boundaries of Human Geography, Social Work, Sociology, and Women's Studies.
- I apply a collage of literature linked to feminism, postcolonialism, development, Just Transition and intersectionality, deploying qualitative methods in triangulation with a questionnaire survey and quantitative techniques (including GIS).
- I bear excellent teaching skills in the classroom, fostering critical thinking. Consistently received positive evaluations and feedback from students.
- I have a strong track record of original, high-quality, internationally excellent research publications in Routledge, Taylor and Francis, Sage, Springer Nature (Palgrave Macmillan), Elsevier, and Wiley. Based on the record of my research publications, in January 2022 and again in November 2022, I have been selected to be a part of the Times Higher Education World University Rankings, one of the prestigious Academic surveys in the world.
- The findings of the ongoing research on India's Missing Children featured on the front page of the Danish Newspaper, Christian Daily/Kristeligt Dagblad on 02 October 2019 entitled Hvert år forsvinder hundredtusinder af børn. Mange findes aldrig igen (<https://www.kristeligt-dagblad.dk/udland/hvert-aar-forsvinder-hundredetusinder-boern-i-verden>). On 16 October 2019, I was interviewed by BBC (South Asia) on the same project.
- The article titled #Me too Movement: An Awareness Campaign published in the International Journal of Innovation, Creativity and Change, 3 (4), Special Edition: Teaching and Training in Cross Cultural Competencies, 1-12 was written to enhance practice-related awareness aimed at tackling sexual assaults at the workplaces, thereby promote the practice of sustainability via collective professional practice in Higher Education globally. On 24 October 2020, I was interviewed by a scholar of Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, Virginia, USA on this project #Me too movement. As of 21 August 2022, this paper ranks 297 out of the top 10,000 papers in Social Science Research Network (SSRN, Elsevier) and has been downloaded 8,131 times. Its citation in Google Scholar is 76. My current SSRN Author Rank is 5596 in paper downloads and 47,209 in paper citations out of 749,668 in 65 disciplines, and I have continuously retained the top 10% of Authors in SSRN by all-time downloads.
- I received New and Emergent Scholar award in 2011, Journal Gender, Place and Culture, Routledge, Taylor and Francis Group for contributions to Gender and sexuality in South Asia.
- Recognised expertise in Geohumanities linked to Politics of Gender, Sexuality, Poverty and Development. I serve as an anonymous Journal Reviewer of 22 high-quality peer-reviewed journals.
- Awarded outstanding contribution in reviewing in 2017, Journal World Development (Elsevier)

- Regularly referenced by researchers. Google Scholar (citations: 1265, h-index: 16, i-10 index: 28)
- Ability to attract research funding. My PhD was funded jointly by Overseas Research Students Awards (ORSA), Department of Employment and Learning, UK and Newcastle University Overseas Research Scholarship (NUORS).
- Developed Gender Geography Syllabus (drafts) for Gauhati University (2012) and Banaras Hindu University (2018).
- Founding editor-in-chief of the open access, blind peer-reviewed SCOPUS-indexed journal Space and Culture, India (www.spaceandculture.in), which was launched in 2013.
- Since 2011, I have been formally and informally mentoring PhD students/research scholars of different universities of India and abroad to help them obtain their respective PhDs and publish articles in outlets of high-quality peer-reviewed international standing.
- As a Research Consultant, teacher & Editor-in-Chief of the journal Space and Culture, India, I have developed networks across different universities, individual scholars, and other stakeholders. In so doing, I have built 'soft power'.
- Actively render voluntary service, especially in advancing gender studies and academic writing skills in different universities and colleges located in remote parts of India through Alliance for Community Capacity Building in North East India, a UK based charity (Charity Number 1106666) and Prag Foundation for Capacity Building, the public charitable trust of India.
- Over the years, through pro bono services, I have contributed over INR 10,00,000 (approximately £11,000) to Prag Foundation for Capacity Building.
- For the whole month of March 2021, I walked more than 10000 steps a day, covering 435,961 steps for Cancer Research UK and generated £375.50+ £69.38 (Gift aid).
