

Objective of the Project: The current study examines the application of emotion regulation strategies to emotional stimuli and the effect of regulation on risky choice behavior. Main objective of this study is to explore the connection between emotion regulation and the sleep and their effect on goal directed behavior, in respect to sleep loss. Electroencephalography (EEG) technique will be used to monitor and localize the brain activity involved in emotion regulation and regulation driven changes in decision-making.