

BIG THANKS to

- Profs. Sanjiv Kapoor, Edward M. Reingold, and Charlie Steele for offering various courses on algorithms,
- Prof. Kapoor for supervising my doctoral thesis,
- Prof. S. N. Maheshwari for giving a multitude of advices on both researching and teaching,
- Prof. Daniels for my masters thesis guidance,
- awesome courses I experienced (CS101, MA101, PH101, ME101, ME102) in my first-year undergrad studies,
- textbooks I have been referring to for years,
- great bunches of students each semester for letting me enjoy teaching seven intense courses¹ rigorously, and
- each of my student advisees for their steadfast participation in weekly discussion sessions.

¹regards extend to all those sincere teaching assistants as well
