

To,

Public Information Officer

Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati,

Guwahati – 781039, India

Subject: Application seeking information under Right to Information Act 2005.

Dear Sir/Madam,

My questions are regarding the Master of Technology (M.Tech) in CSE study program offered by the department of computer science and engineering. Kindly provide answers to the following questions:

1. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2001, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
2. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2002, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
3. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2003, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
4. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2004, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
5. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2005 how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
6. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2006, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
7. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2007, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
8. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2008, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
9. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2009, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?

10. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2010, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
11. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2011, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
12. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2012, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
13. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2013, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
14. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2014, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
15. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2015, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
16. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2016, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
17. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2017, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?
18. Out of all the students who took admission in the above-mentioned study program in the year 2018, how many of them successfully completed the program and finally graduated?

Thank you

Shivam Agarwal